

THE COUSIN JOHN BAND

The Cousin John Band combines high energy, guitar driven riffs with tight vocal harmonies and solid grooves to create a party atmosphere at any venue. The Cousin John Band has a loyal and growing following in the Washington DC area that loves the mix of originals and diverse covers. Whether playing blues, rock, funk, or swing, the band's full, professional sound and fun atmosphere keeps the crowds on their feet until the last note.

The Cousin John Band are experienced instrumentalists and vocalists who have cumulatively played in dozens of working bands from DC to Boston over several decades.

The band features John Mobley's powerful lead vocals and bluesy Strat guitar, and Joe Goltz's blazing lead guitar. The rhythm section of Tim Howe (bass) and Dave O'Brien (drums) locks down the grooves. All members sing, a skill frequently put to use in the band's 2, 3, and 4-part harmonies.
